Notice Regarding Holi Celebrations

The University acknowledges the significance of Holi and encourages its celebration in a joyful yet disciplined manner. However, to maintain a safe and respectful environment, it is imperative that all students, faculty and staff adhere to the following guidelines regarding Holi Celebration:

- The use of wet colours, water balloons, water pistons, etc., is not allowed on the campus. Any act that causes damage to university infrastructure will be subject to strict action.
- Playing music using DJs or loudspeakers is not allowed.
- Banners, posters, or promotional materials of any political or student groups are strictly prohibited on the campus.
- Acts of hooliganism, unruly behaviour, or any form of mischief will not be tolerated. Strict disciplinary action will be taken against violators.
- Any form of eve-teasing, harassment, or misconduct is strictly prohibited and will be dealt with as per University rules and legal provisions.
- Outsiders will not be allowed on the campus. Strict action will be taken against unauthorized entrants.
- Police authorities have been requested to intensify patrolling around the campus, and the district administration has assured full cooperation in maintaining law and order. Any violation of the guidelines mentioned above will result in strict disciplinary and legal action.

To ensure strict adherence to these guidelines, Heads of Departments and Deans of Faculties are instructed to remain vigilant and take appropriate measures to uphold student discipline, both within their departments and throughout the campus. All students, faculty, and staff must uphold the University's dignity through responsible conduct, ensuring a peaceful and disciplined campus environment.
